Dear Parents and Friends of Mt St Patrick College,

On the 31st October 2013, Pope Francis declared Nano Nagle Venerable. The title is an acknowledgement of Nano’s holiness and evidence that God is active in our world. Venerable, as defined by the Church, means that Nano ‘practised virtue to a heroic degree.’

The word ‘heroic’ seems a little out of place in this context since it is usually associated with bravery, fearlessness or a dramatic act that is verging on the superhuman. Undoubtedly, Nano was this type of hero to the many people she so generously helped. To the Church, ‘heroic’ means much more. It is about faith in God and, because of that faith, going beyond the norm to an extraordinary degree. ‘Heroic’ behaviour eventually becomes the new norm and is an integral part of daily life rather than a ‘one-off’ response.

“At the end of the school day, Nano began her rounds to the disease-ridden slums of Cork. Holding her lantern before her with one hand and her cloak around her with the other, she brought food to the starving, clothing to the needy and medicine to the sick. Day after day, the Lady of the Lantern followed the same routine with the same regularity.”

Nano lived a life of ‘heroic virtue.’ She accepted God’s will and demonstrated the virtues of faith, hope and love to a heroic degree. Nano’s faith helped her to see God in the poor; her hope gave her the courage to keep on going no matter what; and her love or charity was evident in giving all she had to the poor.

In naming Nano Nagle Venerable, we honour her holiness. May her example continue to inspire a love of God in our Presentation community as we endeavour to live her motto of ‘deeds not words.’

Nagle Day

Nagle House Day was celebrated on Tuesday 29th April with a College Assembly at the beginning of the day. This year, our celebrations were even more significant as we acknowledged Nano Nagle being declared Venerable. To mark the occasion, a large framed portrait of Nano was carried forward to the stage and became the centrepiece of our Nagle Day prayer focus. The portrait was joined by other symbols that tell the Nagle House story including the Nagle House Lantern; the Nano Nagle Icon; a traditional framed image of Nano donated by Sr Pius O’Farrell of South Presentation Convent, Cork; the ‘1784 Shield’ and the Nagle House Flag. Prayers were read in thanksgiving for the life of Venerable Nano Nagle.

Nagle House students received a yellow wristband and other goodies in celebration of Nagle Day and their patron, Nano Nagle.
Semester 1 Exams
The Half Yearly Examination Week will commence on Tuesday 27th May for Years 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 and end on Monday 2nd June. Year 7 – 10 students are required to attend school for the whole day during the examination period and are not permitted to leave the school during the day or at the completion of an examination. Sport is compulsory for all students on Tuesday 27th May. Students should be working hard in preparation for these exams.

Students must attend school during the Examination Week. If a student is sick on the day of an exam, parents are asked to please ‘phone the College before 9.00am to avoid the student being unnecessarily penalised. Students in Years 10 and 11 are required to obtain a Doctor’s Certificate to explain their absence. Students who are absent without a satisfactory explanation, as deemed by the College, will receive zero marks.

Beacon Cycle
The second Beacon Cycle for 2014 commenced today, Thursday 1st May and will run for three weeks closing on Friday 23rd May. The first cycle proved to be very successful with 80% of students rewarded with a Gold, Silver or Bronze Certificate for their classroom effort. Under this system, a number of students received certificates for the first time. We hope that this Beacon cycle encourages students to make a great effort in class in preparation for the Semester 1 Examinations in Week 5.

Staff Professional Development Days – First Notice
Mt St Patrick College staff will participate in a Staff Professional Development Day on Friday 6th June, 2014. Students are not required to attend the College on this day.

Sympathy
The College community has been saddened by the death, on Tuesday 15th April, of Mrs Di Ferrett, a former long-time teacher at the College. We express our deepest sympathy to her husband, Stan, and children, Anna and Simon.

Congratulations
Congratulations and thanks to the 111 students who represented the College in the Anzac Day March.

Congratulations to the students who represented the College at the NSW Combined Catholic Colleges’ Swimming Carnival at Homebush on Tuesday 29th April. A report is included in this Newsletter.

Some areas of examination preparation that you might like to say but not think well informed choices. It is essential that students maintain motivation and consequently this is a good time for a reminder of the importance of established and effective study habits. Motivation is critical to good study regimes and this is where parents do play a vital role in encouraging, supporting and helping students see the big picture at the end of their schooling. If you think about the things in your own life that help keep you motivated and positive, I’m sure things like encouragement, affirmation, helpful advice and the odd extrinsic reward come to mind. These things are also the most effective in working with young people. Dr Caroline Thompson

CURRICULUM NEWS
YEAR 10 INTO 11 MEETING
There will be a meeting for Year 10 students and their parents at 6.30pm on Wednesday 14th May in the Gilbey Centre. The meeting will inform both students and parents about the requirements of the HSC and detail the process of the subject selection for Year 11 2015.

This process takes time and requires a number of steps guided by the staff to ensure students make well informed choices. It is imperative that all students and parents attend. The meeting commences at 6.30pm sharp.

YEAR 7 STUDY SKILLS
A Study Skills information night for interested parents of Year 7 students will be held in the St Mary of the Cross Science and Language Centre on Wednesday 7th May commencing at 6.30pm.

YEAR 7 – 11 Exams Week 5
All students in Year 7-11 will be involved in exams commencing 26th May and finishing 2nd June. An exam timetable will be issued next week.

To reduce stress students should commence revision now so that they are not cramming during the exams. Each subject will provide an outline of exam requirements and some practice questions. Students should devote study time equally to learning summaries and completing past papers. It is essential that students are present during exams. Please contact the College immediately if your child will be missing exams.

RE NEWS
YEAR 11 STREET RETREAT – A PENTECOST EXPERIENCE
For a number of years, the Lismore Diocese has run overnight retreat activities for Parish School Students in Years 9, 10 and 11. These gatherings aim to bring Catholic secondary students... together to meet like-minded peers and to celebrate and meet with other young people who practice their faith.

In 2014, 6 Year 11 students from our school will join students from each of the other diocesan secondary schools in attending a “Street Retreat.”

Participants in the Street Retreat will spend from Thursday night 19th June to Sunday evening 22nd June working with a range of social justice initiatives in Brisbane. Their participation may make a small contribution to those being served – but the event is first and foremost an exercise in faith development.

Participants will find the activities on the Street Retreat challenging and possibly confronting. Many activities run either very late at night or very early in the morning. The retreat will culminate in a celebration of Sunday Eucharist.

In discerning which students might participate in this retreat experience, the diocese has recommended the following selection criteria:

- Catholic students who can demonstrate involvement in their parish.
- Catholic students who have attended previous student faith leadership retreats. e.g. Festa Christi, Flame, Ignite, SVDP.
- Students who exhibit the following attributes:
  - a strong sense of social justice
  - initiative
  - common sense
  - a mature character.

A number of Mt St Patrick College students have already expressed an interest in this event. We can, however, only offer 6 places. Any student who would like to be considered is asked to write a brief statement supporting their nomination on the information sheets provided by Mr O’Donohue, and available at the front office. Attention should be given to the stated selection criteria. Nominations are to be handed to Mr O’Donohue no later than Friday 16th May.

Michael O’Donohue
Leader of Evangelisation

LEARNING SUPPORT

During the last week of Term 1 we were most appreciative of the following Year 11 students who volunteered and assisted as Readers/Writers for eligible Year 12 students during their examinations: Emily Clark, Maddison King, Isabelle Adams, Charlie Grimshaw, Ashley Mumford, Dannica Schultz, Peter Piccini-Luhlam, Tully Herrmann, Dylan Prichard, Kiahma Walker, Jackai Mortimer, Joseph Allman and Hannah Wicks.

During Autism Awareness month in April we hoped that any student who may be interacting with a peer who has Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) could watch a youtube: “What are you doing?”

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rguyTZeeQv8

Currently we are looking for community volunteers to read and write for students during examination week May 27th to June 2nd. This examination period is for Grades 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 and there are a significant number of students who are eligible for this support for their subject examinations. Any time you can offer will be greatly appreciated and will make a difference to the fairness and confidence of the students. If you can help, please book in the dates in your diary and contact us now for any further information. The requirements are compassion, confidentiality, patience and understanding for the students who have reading and writing difficulties. You can contact me regarding this matter through the College office on (02) 66722340.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FROM THE ADDITIONAL NEEDS TEACHER FOR PARENTS OF STUDENTS WHO HAVE A DISABILITY / LEARNING DIFFICULTY

A model for the Nationally Consistent Collection of Data on School Students with Disability has been developed and trialled over a number of years with support from all states and territories. It is now being applied across all educational settings and contexts, including regular or mainstream schools and classes as well as special schools and special classes.

Under the model, teachers use their professional, informed judgement to determine:

- which of their students are being provided with a reasonable adjustment because of disability, as defined in the Disability Discrimination Act 1992 (the DDA) and the Disability Standards for Education 2005
- the level of adjustment that students with disability are being provided with, in both classroom and whole of school contexts
- the broad category of disability under which each student best fits.

Where there is evidence at a school to demonstrate that a student is being provided with a reasonable adjustment to meet long-term (10+ weeks) specific needs associated with disability, in consultation with the student or their parents or carers, then the student is eligible to be counted in the national data collection on students with disability.

Students who are not being provided with an adjustment but who do meet the definition of disability under the DDA are also eligible to be counted in the data collection.

Steps

The model for the national data collection on students with disability consists of four steps.

Step 1: Determining which students are being provided with a reasonable adjustment to address a disability as defined by the DDA.

Step 2: Determining what level of adjustment is being provided to each of these students.

Step 3: Determining the broad category of disability under which each student best fits.

Step 4: Recording and submitting the data.

Underpinning these four steps is evidence within the school of the actions that teachers and school staff have taken as part of their professional practice. This includes evidence of the assessed, identified educational needs of a student with disability and of the provision of personalised adjustments to meet the student’s identified educational needs in consultation with the student and/or their parents and carers. Parents of students who already have an IP (Individual Plan) have provided the evidence of needs and now are able to know that their student will be part of the data collection.

As the Principal will have to verify or confirm that there is evidence at the College to support the inclusion of a student in the data collection, this notice is to invite the parents of other students who have known learning difficulties to provide any evidence they may have and to make contact with me to discuss this. For example, I already have current evidence for some students who have diagnoses of hearing difficulties,
ADHD, dyspraxia, dysgraphia, and dyslexia but not for all. Email can be an effective method for this contact: kcristini@lism.catholic.edu.au. Thank you.

BILL TURNER CUP
On Tuesday 1st April the Mt St Patrick College Bill Turner Under 15 Boys Football Competition kicked off for 2014 against Murwillumbah High School. Due to a bye for us in the first round our opponents had already played a game so it was with lots of anticipation 15 boys selected their precious shirt numbers and donned the shin pads for our first game. Having clear and specific team goals for the game the boys started with great intensity and scored a goal within the opening two minutes of the game, Kodi Cripps finishing a beautiful through ball. After this enthusiastic start the players did not look back. Two goals to Kodi Cripps, two to Dylan Marshall, two to Dom Morosini and one goal to Jarrah Brownhill the game ended 7 – 0. It was a passionate start to the competition. We welcomed back Ethan Bruggy into the side with a Man of the Match performance. Well done Ethan! Bring on Round Two.

YR 10 HSIE EXCURSION.

To complete their first unit of HSIE Year 10 students went on an excursion at the end of last term. The Historians travelled to Mudgeeraba to inspect the War Museum and the memorabilia that a willing group of Vietnam veterans have assembled. This even included wearing some of the uniforms! The focus was on the Vietnam War in particular, but comparisons and contrasts were also made with earlier and later conflicts that have involved Australian forces. The students were fortunate to meet Bob Meehan, OAM, who is nationally recognised for his work in gaining acknowledgement for the conscripts who served in Vietnam, as well as veterans in general. It was interesting to hear stories from the war from the veterans, told in person, in a military setting.

The Geographers travelled to Cabarita to study “Coastal Processes”. This involved a walk to the headland, field sketches and a beach transect. Discussion centred on Coastal management practices and new developments planned for the Tweed Coast. The students then inspected the beach erosion and management techniques at Kingscliff and completed a report detailing the challenges our coasts are facing, and suggesting techniques to manage beaches in the future.

ENVIRONMENT GROUP

Our Enviro group recently had a guest speaker, Tanya Fountain, from Tweed Shire Council, give us an interesting talk on Tweed Coast Koalas and the “Koala Connections” project. The group meets on every second Wednesday in room 40 at lunch time. New members are welcome.
